The Edmund L. Sanderson Lecture Series Presents

Saving The Invisible Soldiers

Abigayle Versackas

Tuesday, July 10, 2018
7:00 p.m.
260 Grove Street, Waltham

Please join us as Abigayle Versackas discusses issues faced by soldiers returning from war zones suffering with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder.

This lecture is a first for the Waltham Historical Society. Our speaker, Abigayle Versackas is a 17 year old Honors History senior at Waltham High School with a strong passion for History, and for educating others on history's relevance and importance.

Abby aspires to be a history teacher and further educate the youth of tomorrow ensuring that issues faced by veterans of the Vietnam War are not forgotten. She hopes, as a young person, to start a real conversation about the tribulations of war and the illnesses that afflict the home-coming soldiers.

A proud daughter of a Vietnam Veteran, she hopes to honor his and others' service in preparing and delivering this presentation. We invite you to come and contribute to her efforts.

Refreshments will be available.
