

They Paved Paradise: 100 Years of Recreation in Waltham

Waltham High School history teacher Jack Cox will discuss the changing face of recreation in Waltham over the past 100 years. Included in the presentation will be images of Bicycle Park, the Embassy Theatre, Cornelia Warren's Maze, the Wal-Lex Recreation Center, and Grover Cronin's Easter Bunny Parade.

Thursday, April 11, 2019 at 7:00 pm

At Historic New England's Lyman Estate

185 Lyman Street, Waltham, MA

Come early to explore the grounds and the first floor of the mansion.

Cosponsored by the Waltham Historical Society and Historic New England

$5 Historic New England and Waltham Historical Society members. Waltham Historical Society members call 617-994-5912 to register in advance.